Philosophy and Approach: We all have the ability to shape the way we think. This is exciting because while there is no doubt that our past impacts the formulation of our core beliefs about ourselves and our world; data suggests that we can learn to employ strategies which make our mind our ally in our pursuit of wellness.

My counseling philosophy springs from a practical Theistic worldview and integrates Cognitive Behavior Therapy, Acceptance and Commitment Therapy and other strength-based techniques. My approach is holistic and collaborative and I work alongside the client to establish treatment goals.

I care about people, and I care about my clients, thus I strive to help them understand themselves in a deeply satisfying way and to learn practical skills. I have worked successfully with people of all ages, including —as a child and family therapist—with teens and their parents.

Formal Education and Training: My professional development involved studies at University of Victoria, B.C. and Western Oregon University where I completed my Master’s degree in Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling. My coursework included but was not limited to theories and techniques for individual and group counseling, human growth and development, trauma and crisis intervention, psychopharmacology, addiction and ethics. I completed my practicum and internship at Western’s Student Health and Counseling Center and subsequently completed forty hours of EMDR training.

As a Licensee of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I abide by its Code of Ethics. To maintain my license I am required to participate in continuing education, taking classes dealing with subjects relevant to this profession.

Fee Schedule: Fees for counseling services are $195.00 for the initial session and $165.00 for each subsequent individual session. Some adjustment in fees is possible in cases of need and when discussed in advance with the counselor.

If at any time you are dissatisfied with the treatment services you are receiving, please let me know. You have the right to stop treatment at any time or to request a different therapist.

Client Bill of Rights:

- To expect that a licensee has met the qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
- To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee;
- To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics (Oregon Administrative Rules 833-100);
- To report complaints to the Board through either of the Co-Directors of SPCC and/or to report complaints to the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists;
- To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
- To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule or law, with the following exceptions: 1) Reporting suspected child abuse; 2) Reporting imminent danger to you or others; 3) Reporting information required in court proceedings or by your insurance company, or other relevant agencies; 4) Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and 5) Defending claims brought by you against me;
- To be free from discrimination because of age, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, national origin, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, or socioeconomic status.

SALEM PASTORAL COUNSELING CENTER
OFFICE POLICIES/INFORMED CONSENT

Prior to beginning treatment, it is important for you to familiarize yourself with your counselor's approach to treatment, your rights and responsibilities, and Salem Pastoral Counseling Center's (SPCC) office policies. This document, along with your counselor's Professional Disclosure Statement and our Notice of Privacy Practices, discusses these topics. Please take the time to review the information contained in these three documents and ask any questions you may have. After your questions and concerns have been answered, please sign and date on the reverse side of this page.

Approach to Treatment: To provide the best care possible, it is important that your counselor has a clear understanding of what brings you to treatment. In order to gain that understanding about your past and current functioning, a thorough assessment will be completed. Following the assessment, a treatment plan will be formulated and together with your counselor you will work towards the goals established. It is crucial that you are an active participant in therapy and candidly express with your counselor your treatment needs.

Risks and Alternatives to Treatment: It is important for you to know that there are risks involved in therapy. For example, some people experience an increase in stress particularly during the early stages of therapy. In some instances, discussing longstanding, unresolved problems can seem to aggravate rather than help with a problem. It is normal and understandable that it will be uncomfortable facing difficult feelings and situations. Keep in mind that, often, "the best way out is through", and your counselor will endeavor to walk through it with you. Your counselor may ask, "what will be different if counseling is successful for you?" You get to define that, and to a large degree are in charge of the pace and progress of your healing journey. If you or your counselor feel at any time that the professional relationship is not a good fit, your counselor will be willing to assist you in finding other options.

Appointments and Cancellations: Counselors work variable hours Monday through Friday with some evening appointments available. Counseling sessions are typically 45-55 minutes in duration. Please try to keep appointments you make, even if it is inconvenient. Appointments may be canceled or rescheduled by calling the voice mail of your counselor at 503-370-8050 and entering their extension. Because our counselors do their own scheduling, your counselor will contact you to reschedule. There is no charge for appointments canceled more than 24 hours in advance. However, except for genuine emergencies or illness, missed appointments and those canceled with fewer than 24 hours notice will be billed up to the usual fee ($165) for the time scheduled. Insurance companies will accept billing only for appointments actually kept, the client is billed directly the full amount for missed sessions.

Phone Calls and Emergencies: Salem Pastoral Counseling Center has a 24-hour/day, 7-day/week-voice mail system that can be reached by dialing 503-370-8050. All calls are routed through our confidential voice mail system. If you have a life-threatening emergency, please dial 911. If you are a current client and have an urgent situation, the on-call counselor can be reached by dialing 503-918-2180. A counselor will return your call as soon as they are able and will make effort to contact your specific counselor directly.

Confidentiality: Sessions are confidential with the following exceptions: (1) A report of suspected child abuse; (2) Threats to commit suicide; (3) Threats of violence against another person, (4) Abuse of elderly persons; (5) An acknowledged waiver of the privilege by the client; (6) By court order (7) When contacting a collection agency for nonpayment of fees. Written permission from you is necessary in order for your counselor to release information to another person. Please refer to our Notice of Privacy Practices for a more complete outline of how your confidential information is handled.

Communications and Your Privacy: Please know that despite all security efforts, email, cell phone including text messages, and fax communication can be relatively easily accessed by unauthorized people, which can compromise the privacy and confidentiality of such communication. If you convey sensitive personal information by cell phone, email, or fax, your counselor and SPCC assumes that you have made an informed decision accepting this risk. To protect your privacy, we strongly suggest communicating sensitive information in person or on your counselor's confidential voice mail and limiting email or cell phone communication to scheduling issues only. Please also understand that any requests for contact related to social networking will not be confirmed or acknowledged to protect your privacy.

Legal Issues: ALL COUNSELORS of Salem Pastoral Counseling Center are unwilling and unavailable to testify or advocate in legal situations, disability determination and custody studies. If you need a court evaluation, testimony in court, or any legal support, your counselor will assist you in finding someone who can provide those services.

Insurance: Please review your insurance policy for coverage of outpatient mental health services. Sometimes insurance companies will require pre-authorization and it is your responsibility to obtain this prior to treatment or the insurance will not pay. SPCC will file insurance claims for you, however, this is a courtesy on our part. You are personally responsible for the entire insurance process. We cannot guarantee that the insurance company will reimburse and it is important to understand that you, as the client, remain responsible for whatever portion of the bill your insurance company does not pay. Should there be an overpayment, we will refund the difference either to you or your insurance company, depending on who has overpaid.

Payment and Billing: You are expected to pay your fee or co-pay at each office visit unless other arrangements are made in advance. Our first session intake fee is $195.00 and all subsequent fees are $165.00 per session. All balances past due 60 days will be assessed a monthly 1.5% finance charge.

Adjusted Fee Schedule An income-dependent adjusted fee schedule is also available for those without insurance. If you believe you may qualify for the adjusted fee schedule (and are willing to provide documentation upon request) please complete the following:

1) Total family gross monthly income: _____
(Include all income before taxes, including child support, spousal support, school grants, and state-assistance programs.)

2) Number of persons this income supports: _____
Please keep your counselor informed of any changes in your financial status, as an increase or decrease of income will affect your adjusted fee.

Additional office information: (to be entered by therapist): _____
If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask your counselor or the office staff.

Consent to Treatment: I have read the above information and have had the opportunity to ask questions about it. I understand my rights to privacy and the risks associated with treatment. If there are children involved in treatment, I hereby give consent for their treatment and affirm that I am the legal guardian with the authority to consent to treatment. I also agree to the payment and billing policies outlined above and accept full responsibility for any and all fees incurred. I consent to participate in treatment and I understand that I may refuse services at any time. I hereby authorize the Salem Pastoral Counseling Center to provide all information necessary to process all insurance claims. I am also aware that my counselor may periodically consult with other counselors at SPCC and/or with clinical supervisors on client issues. My signature below indicates I have received a copy of my therapist's Professional Disclosure Statement, Notice of Privacy Practices, and have read, understand and agree to abide with the policies outlined on both sides of this document, and have obtained copies of these documents for future reference.
